If we can't reach you.... We can't alert you

Citizens can sign up for emergency warnings through the Merced County's Emergency Notification System. We'll send you alerts when there is a threat to health or safety of residents.

- You choose the locations – your home, your parents' home, your workplace, and/or your child's school
- You choose how you want to receive those alerts – on your home phone, cellular, phone, work phone, email, text message, facsimile or instant messaging.

All information you provide is confidential and will not be shared. Please register online to ensure that we have your current contact information. By registering online you opt-in for emergency warning and alerts.

Go to: www.co.merced.ca.us/alert to register.

If you do not have access to a computer please register at any Merced County Library.

If you choose to receive alert on your cellular phone, you may be charged the standard fee from your phone provider. Merced County is not responsible for any charges incurred as a result of receiving alerts on your cell phone. Citizens, can opt-out at any time through the registration update process.
